THE ENDYMOIN CASE. Judge Humphreys of New York has rendered a decision discharging Endymoin from the custody of the Sheriff of Cayuga county. It will be remembered that Endymoin, who was a prisoner at Auburn, forced the names of several of its officers, representing that he was near death, and petitioning the Governor to grant him a pardon. The pardon was granted and Endymoin released, but when the fraud became known he was again arrested and lodged in jail. The effect of the decision is that the court cannot go behind the pardon of the Governor to inquire into the facts of the case. Endymoin will, therefore, profit by his ingenious falsehood.
